- (c) A-IV, B-I, C-II, D-III
- (d) A-II, B-IV, C-III, D-I
- (e) Question not attempted

Ans. (c) : The subsidiary alliance in India was planned by lord Wellesley but the term was introduced by French Governor Dupleix.

An Indian ruler entering into subsidiary Alliance with the British had to dissolve his own armed Forces and accept British forces in his territory and had to pay for maintenance of the forces. If the ruler failed to pay a portion of his territory would be taken away and cited to the British. In return the British would protect the Indian state form external and internal threats. The Indian state could not enter into any alliance with any other foreign power. The Indian ruler lost all powers in respect of Foreign affairs and the military Also the India rulers was not allowed to break the alliance. There statement 1, 2 and 3 are correct.
